

THE Astronomer's OBSESSION

WARNING: In case you've not finished reading yet, be forewarned that the questions below contain spoilers.

1. Harry believes everything is knowable. "If we look hard enough and shine a bright enough torch, we can see the answers." Do you agree? What do you think Harry would make of today's understanding of the universe?
2. Comment on Celeste's perspective on art exhibits: "Separating ladies from the general Salon only diminishes the importance of their work."
3. Lord Ashford gambled one child's future for another's on what he thought was a sure thing. Do you think the risk was worth it?
4. What was your favorite line?
5. In what ways did Harry and Celeste show their love for one another?
6. Was there a part of the story that made you laugh? Cry?
7. Who or what was the astronomer's "obsession"?
8. Was Harry and Celeste's love believable?
9. How did Celeste change and grow throughout the story?
10. How did Harry change and grow throughout the story?

